May 2004

Dear Princetonian:

WELCOME BACK!

There's no better way to celebrate being a Princetonian than returning to campus for Reunions. Your Reunion Chairs have once again created a memorable weekend, as you will see from the program contained in this booklet. We hope that your visit with friends and classmates this year will be truly special.

As President of the Alumni Association, I have the pleasure of serving during an extraordinary time in Princeton's long history. Our 19th President, Shirley M. Tilghman, has had the opportunity to meet with many of you over the past three years, both at Princeton and in your own regions. She has spoken openly and earnestly about her goals and vision for Princeton. I hope that over the course of this weekend you will get a chance to see just how Princeton continues to flourish on all fronts under her leadership.

I encourage you to sample the intellectual fare of the many fine forums sponsored by the Alumni Council and the major reunion classes, and to enjoy Princeton's visual and performing artists. For those thinking of a career move, the Alumni Council Careers Committee is hosting a half-day careers colloquium on Thursday. On Saturday morning, our new Dean of Admission Janet Rapelye will host an information session on navigating the college admission process for high school students and their parents. This will be followed by President Tilghman's fourth annual "Conversation with Alumni." And, of course, on Saturday afternoon there's the one and only P-rade, followed in the evening by a concert and fireworks on Finney and Campbell Fields near the Princeton Stadium.

I welcome you back to Princeton and salute the many alumni leaders and volunteers who have worked so diligently to bring this reunion together for all of us.

HAVE A WONDERFUL WEEKEND!

Physics Department/Alumni Lecture: "Light from the Edge of the Universe: Our Oldest Fossil." Join Lyman Page, Professor of Physics, and learn about the cosmic microwave background (CMB), otherwise known as the afterglow of the Big Bang. The Wilkinson Microwave Anisotropy Probe (WMAP), currently observing the CMB from a million miles away, is giving us an all-sky picture of the universe in exquisite detail. The picture corresponds to a snapshot taken just 379,000 years after the Big Bang. From an examination of this radiative fossil we can determine the age and composition of the universe, and we can begin to understand how the structures in the universe, such as galaxies and clusters of galaxies, came to be. A reception will immediately follow the lecture. To 5:00 p.m. Sponsored by the Physics Department. Jadwin Hall, Room A10.

Access for People with Disabilities

If you or another member of your family who is participating in this year's Reunions activities require accommodation for a disability, please contact the Associate Provost's Office at 609-258-6110. We would appreciate it if you could indicate the events you expect to attend and provide information about your needs as early as possible.

Alcohol Policy at Princeton University

The University alcoholic beverage policy is designed to be consistent with the laws of the State of New Jersey and also reflects the need for mutual respect and personal responsibility within a diverse community.

The University and Borough Prohibits:

- Transporting of an open container of alcohol across common spaces of the University (Common spaces are areas such as lounges, open campus, meeting halls, etc., outside of Reunions Headquarters).
- Possession of a container of alcohol by persons under the age of 21.
- Serving of alcohol to persons under the age of 21.

The State of New Jersey has very strict laws concerning driving under the influence of alcohol and drugs. Persons found guilty of DWI charges are subject to substantial penalties, including fines and imprisonment. In addition, the Borough of Princeton prohibits the transporting of open containers of alcohol in public places, such as streets and sidewalks (including Prospect Street). Finally, please note that golf carts are considered vehicles for purposes of DWI and Open Container laws.

Art Museum

The permanent collections range from ancient to contemporary art and concentrate, geographically, on the Mediterranean regions, Western Europe, China, the United States, and Latin America. ### Computing Resources

Network Service Available Wednesday noon through Sunday noon

OIT is pleased to make network connectivity available for your use during Reunions weekend. To use the service, your computer must have a 10Base-T Ethernet interface and an Ethernet cable, or a computer that has an 802.11b Wireless interface.

Where to Connect

All dorm rooms have one or more active network jacks. Some additional ports are available in other locations, notably the Frist Campus Center. You will need an Ethernet cable to connect your computer to the network. Please note that if your computer is configured for a private Intranet, you may have difficulty accessing our service, and if you are able to get campus service, you might not be able to access your company's service.

Campus Information, Exhibits, Programs and Services

With an 802.11b Wireless (“Wi-Fi”) interface, you may use the OIT Wireless Service in a few locations on campus. These areas include portions of the Frist Campus Center (Café Vivian and near the Digital Display Wall), Cannon Green, the front campus, Firestone Plaza, Alexander Hall “beach,” Scudder Plaza, Roberston Hall and E-Quad. OIT Wireless Service is not available in dormitories. Simply configure your computer’s wireless connection to “Use DHCP,” set the “network name” to “puwireless” and restart while in one of the areas listed above.

Configuring Your Computer

Once you reach campus simply configure your computer’s network settings to “Use DHCP” to obtain an IP address. All recent versions of Microsoft Windows and Apple Mac OS include DHCP software. Computers that cannot be configured to use DHCP will be unable to use Reunions Network Service.

Simply plug in, configure it to “Use DHCP,” and restart your computer; you should then be able to gain access to the Internet.

Getting Help While On Campus

The OIT Help Desk is open over Reunions from Thursday morning through Friday at 5:00 p.m. Another resource is the OIT Solutions Center, located in the Frist Campus Center, which is open Monday through Friday from 9:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m., with the last computer check-in at 3:00 p.m. (to ensure all problems are resolved by closing time).

Computing Facilities Available During Reunions

There are several computing facilities (“clusters”) available for your use during Reunions weekend. These machines will have a special reunions configuration and will not require you to log in. You can simply visit one of the facilities listed below and gain access to the Internet. You can use these computers to check your email (provided you have a web-accessible email interface), browse the Internet and use Microsoft Office.

Campus Information, Exhibits, Programs and Services

Your Responsibilities

It is especially important that the computer you attach to the campus network operates in such a way as to not interfere with the network. Because these devices will not be registered in the Princeton University Host Database, OIT will be unable to identify their owners in the event they operate in ways that interfere with the campus network. This can make it difficult to address problems and restore network service to the rest of the campus in a timely fashion.

You can help minimize such problems by ensuring that the computer you bring to campus has all current updates installed, is properly secured against intrusion, and has current antiviral software. In particular, you should not attach DHCP servers to the campus network.

While you are a customer of Princeton University's network, you are expected to abide by the University's acceptable use policy; see Princeton University Information Technology Resources and Internet Access — Guidelines for Use. This document is available online at www.princeton.edu/~policy/Ware/Abouttheguidelines.shtml.

Firestone Library Galleries

Exhibits of the Library on view during Reunions: "The Bible in English: Before and After the Hampton Court Conference, 1604" and "Of Maps and Men: In Pursuit of the Northwest Passage."

The gallery hours are: Thursday – Sunday, 9:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m. In addition, Publications by the Class of 1954 will be shown in the Firestone Library Lobby. The lobby hours are: Thursday and Friday, 8:00 a.m. – 11:00 p.m., Saturday and Sunday, 9:00 a.m. – 11:00 p.m. The Library is open to alumni during Reunions without charge. Firestone Library.

Lightning Storms: Emergency Preparedness

Lightning is the second leading cause of direct weather deaths in the U.S., after floods, and results in more fatalities each year than tornadoes and hurricanes combined. Given the random nature of lightning strikes, absolute protection cannot be guaranteed to any individual or group. Individuals are ultimately responsible for their personal safety and should take appropriate action when threatened by lightning. Adults must take responsibility for the safety of children in their care during thunderstorm activities. However, awareness of certain lightning safety guidelines can greatly reduce the risk of injury or death.

1. Identify in advance a location (e.g., building, bus, personal automobile) that would be safe during a thunderstorm. Locations that offer little or no protection from lightning include tents, golf carts, or open shelters, such as parking garages. Recommended locations for Reunions participants include dormitories of headquarters sites, Alexander Hall, the Chapel and the Frist Campus Center.
2. Public Safety will notify your Reunion if a bad storm is expected and if evacuation of the headquarters site is recommended. When you first see lightning or hear thunder, go to the safe location immediately. Lightning often precedes rain; so don't wait for the rain to begin before suspending activities.
3. If you are caught outdoors, avoid the high ground, open spaces, and water. Avoid all metal objects including electrical wires, fences, machinery, motors, and power tools. Avoid standing under Reunion tents; while they provide protection from the rain, they do not provide protection from lightning. If lightning is striking nearby when you are outside, you should:

Campus Information, Exhibits, Programs and Services

- a. Crouch down and put your feet together. Place your hands over your ears to minimize hearing damage from thunder.
  - b. If part of a group, spread out. You should avoid being in close proximity (minimum of 15 feet) to other people.
4. Suspend outdoor activities for at least 30 minutes after the last observed lightning flash or thunder clap or until your reunion receives the "All Clear" message from Public Safety.
  5. Persons injured by a lightning strike do not carry an electrical charge and can be handled safely. Apply First Aid procedures to a lightning victim if you are qualified to do so. Call 911 or send for help immediately.

Medical Services

We are fortunate to have large numbers of people in attendance at Reunions and medical emergencies both large and small can be expected. If you or a companion need assistance, medical help is available for bee stings, cardiac symptoms or anything in between. Please check at your major reunion headquarters site, program your cell phone to 609-258-3333 or 609-258-3134, or dial 911 from any blue light or campus phone.

For the Lawn Concert and Fireworks at Finney and Campbell Fields, emergency aid workers are stationed at the north plaza of the Princeton Stadium (Western Way) and at the FitzRandolph Road gate (east side of field). In addition, two mobile teams will be circulating. If you experience any discomfort during or after the presentations, workers are ready to assist you.

Orange Key Campus Tours

There is a small fee for activities. Trips will meet at the OA Reunion Tent 15 minutes before the starting time. Dillon Gym Courtyard, Outdoor Action Reunion Tent.

Parking

All entrances to the University will be closed to vehicles during Reunions. To access our campus shuttle, park cars in Lots #16, #23 and #23A on the lower end of campus. Overflow will be in Lot #21, next to Jadwin Gym.

P-rade!

The one and only P-rade begins at 2:00 p.m. on Saturday. Alumni, spouses and their children are welcome to march.

Be sure to check the P-rade map in your Princeton Alumni Weekly issue, or on posters at your major reunion headquarters site and around campus for the route and staging area for your class. Special orange signs will also be posted along the route—or you can look for your classmates in their reunion costumes. This year's finale will return to Poe-Pardee fields, after two years away because of campus construction. Parents of members of the Class of 2004 are encouraged to sit on the bleachers reserved for them at the Poe-Pardee finale for the best views and photos. At the end of the route, please help keep the P-rade moving! Don't stop to chat—but proceed to your next terrific reunion activity and pick up some water on your way. Free water will be available near the Carl Icahn Laboratory.

Here are some additional suggestions that could help your major reunion win this year's Class of 1945 P-rade Trophy:

- Get to your staging area by 1:45 p.m.
- Wear your reunion costume.
- Keep up with your class! Follow the banner as a tightly formed group.
- Carry very young children or use a stroller.
- Stop very briefly to cheer at the Reviewing Stand and then continue moving.

Public Safety

The Public Safety Office is located in the basement of Stanhope Hall and can be reached at 609-258-3134. Emergency calls can be made from any blue light campus or wall mounted emergency phone, by pressing the red emergency button, or by pressing 9 - 1 - 1. If making an emergency call from a cell phone, dial 609-258-3333. We recommend you program your cell phone for campus emergencies by setting a speed dial number to 609-258-3333. Dialing 911 on a cell phone simply goes to the county for routing and slows emergency response.

University Archives

Reunions and the P-rade: A Historical Retrospective. The archives also houses memorabilia, senior theses and records of Princeton's history and lore. Thursday and Friday, 9:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m.; Saturday, 9:00 a.m. – 1:00 p.m.. Seeley G. Mudd Manuscript Library (behind Elm Club).

Cicadas

The 17-year magicicadas are back! At Reunions this year, you may notice a louder-than-usual sound of insect "singing." This is from male cicadas, which have sound-producing drum-like structures called tymbals on either side of the abdomen. Over the course of a cicada emergence, males congregate in "choruses" or singing aggregations, usually in high, sunlit branches of deciduous trees. They have alarm calls, calling songs and courtship calls.

The cicadas, though numerous, are not dangerous. Cicadas do not sting or bite humans, and they do not carry diseases. They do have prickly feet which can pinch or scratch.

Groups of cicadas that share the same emergence years are called broods. The cicadas that will appear here this year belong to Brood X, which is the largest of the 17-year broods. There are three different species of 17-year periodical cicada that will emerge in 2004: Magicicada septendecim, M. cassini, and M. septendecula. Cicadas emerge when the soil temperature exceeds 64 F, which usually happens in late May. They mate, females lay eggs in the trees and the adults begin to die. The eggs hatch into larvae, which feed on tree sap. When they are big enough, they fall to the ground to dig tunnels and live out their lives until the next emergence, 17 years later.

We hope you will appreciate this display of one of nature's curiosities.
