

Reunions

PRINCETON UNIVERSITY

Dear Princetonian,

Welcome back to Old Nassau!

There's no better way to celebrate being a Princetonian than returning to campus for Reunions. Your Class and APGA Reunion Chairs, along with volunteers from dozens of alumni organizations and departments, have once again created a memorable weekend, as you will see from the program contained in this booklet. We hope that your visit with friends and classmates here on campus will be meaningful and memorable.

I encourage you to sample the intellectual fare of the many fine Alumni-Faculty Forums and panels sponsored by the Alumni Association, departments, and the major reunion classes. Of special note, on Friday afternoon, Dean of Admission Janet Rapelye will host an information session on navigating the college admission process for high school students and their parents. Also on Friday afternoon, those alumni interested in leveraging the Princeton careers network are invited to a careers program on "Career Mapping." As an alternative, take advantage of the vast wealth of entertainment offered during the weekend—you may want to spend the afternoon on Friday listening to alumni bands from the past battle it out in our first "Battle of the Alumni Bands" on the South Lawn of Frist Campus Center.

On Saturday morning, we hope that you will attend President Shirley M. Tilghman's annual "Conversation with Alumni" in Richardson Auditorium. And, of course, on Saturday afternoon there's the one and only P-rade, followed in the evening by a concert and fireworks on Finney and Campbell Fields near the Princeton Stadium.

As President of the Alumni Association, I have had the opportunity to travel with President Tilghman, our 19th President, to Town Meetings and Regional Conferences and to meet many of you in your regions. At these gatherings, President Tilghman has spoken openly and earnestly about her goals and vision for Princeton. I hope that over the course of this weekend you will get a chance to see just how well Princeton continues to flourish under her leadership.

I welcome you back to Princeton and salute the many alumni leaders and volunteers who have worked so diligently to make this reunion possible for all of us.

Have a wonderful weekend.

David C. Siegfried '64

Law and Religion The United States is a deeply religious country—and a deeply constitutional country. But can it be religious and constitutional at the same time? The Sixth Annual Continuing Legal Education conference will explore the law of religion and religious sources of law. The Opening Lecture will be “Separation of Church & State: Is it a Myth, a Mandate, or a Mistake?” by Christopher Eisgruber ’83, Provost, Princeton University. Sessions include: “Recent Constitutional Controversies over Religious Liberty;” “Funding Faith: Social Services & Religious Schools under the Constitution;” “A Comparative Perspective on the Legal Rights of Religious Minorities;” and “Matters of Faith: What Does Religion Require of Public Officials, Judges, and Lawyers?” The program will also feature a debate between Robert P. George and Aidan O’Neill. Among the confirmed speakers for this year’s conference are: Robert Ahdieh ’94, Emory Law School, Microsoft-IAPA Fellow; Alan E. Brownstein, University of California-Davis School of Law; Christopher Eisgruber ’83, Princeton University; Richard W. Garnett, University of Notre Dame Law School; Robert P. George, Princeton University; Marci A. Hamilton, Kathleen and Martin Crane IAPA Fellow, Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law, Yeshiva University; Michael Karayanni, Hebrew University of Jerusalem, and Member, Institute for Advanced Study, 2007–08; Sanford V. Levinson, University of Texas at Austin School of Law; Stephen Macedo, Princeton University; Aidan O’Neill, Queen’s Counsel (QC), Edinburgh and London, and Inaugural University Center for Human Values/IAPA Fellow in Law and Normative Inquiry; Kim Lane Scheppele, Princeton University; and Laura S. Underkuffler, Duke University Law School. Pre-registration is required—lunch included. There is a CLE credit fee for alumni and non-alumni attorneys.

Building a Framework of Factual Knowledge in a Faith-Based Society: A Faculty Panel Presented by the Class of 1943

Science and Religion each claim dominion over more and more of society and human knowledge. Attempts to resolve differences seem to exacerbate the problem. In fundamentalist Islamic societies, in America and elsewhere, the problem is increasingly disturbing. Religion, no longer monastic, has become mixed with culture, race, nationalism, military, and other interests. Voting and behavior are often along religious lines. Citizens face creationism vs. evolution, conflicts of religious and civil laws, faith-based government programs, restrictions in religious demonstration, teaching in schools, and in beneficial forms of research. Yet many religious people decry “the secularization of society.” Both sides question political candidates as to whether their religious beliefs will affect their performance of official duties. There is no agreement as to whether strong religious belief can coexist with reliance on science, or whether science has effectively demonstrated that religious beliefs have no place in the rational mind. An increasing number of books by recognized philosophers, physical scientists and sociologists promote the latter position. In addition to science, Princeton also teaches and encourages discussion of theological, philosophical and metaphysical issues, through its Department of Religion, Dean of Religious Life, Dean of the Chapel, Center for Jewish Life, and its recently instituted Center for the Study of Religion. Scientists have no special competence in these areas, but an informed philosophy of life should take into account the best scientific understanding of relevant facts. The Faculty Panel will be moderated by Professor Lee M. Silver, Woodrow Wilson School, and introduced by Dr. Theodore Rockwell ’43.

9:00 AM continued

The panel includes the following professors: Freeman J. Dyson, Member, Princeton Institute for Advanced Study; Michael J. Berry, Molecular Biology; Susan T. Fiske, Psychology; Alan E. Mann, Anthropology; Dr. Neil deGrasse Tyson, Cosmology, and Director, Hayden Planetarium. The whole science/religion issue is complex; we cannot resolve it here. But this panel is superbly equipped to present some of the latest relevant scientific findings, and to offer opinions on applicable questions addressed through the moderator. Discussions will be based on pre-submitted written questions, with an opportunity for audience participation at an appropriate time. Questions for the moderator, including name and address, may be sent to J. F. Brinster by e-mail at jfbrain@aol.com. To 12:00 Noon. Sponsored by the Class of 1943. Robertson Hall, Bowl 16.

Community Service Project The Class of 2003's Community Service Program encourages members to celebrate Princeton's tradition of giving in non-traditional ways. If you could save a life, would you? The first part of the program will discuss the impact of giving the gift of life through organ donation. With close to 100,000 people in the U.S. waiting for an organ that may never come, this issue gets more critical every day. We'll separate the myths from the facts, and class members Maura Bolger '03, Cam Atkinson '03, and Jessica Melore '03 will share their personal experiences on how organ donation changed their lives. Princeton in Latin America (PiLA) extends Princeton's spirit of giving to an international level. Co-founders Allen Taylor '03 and Dan Pastor '03, along with Christian Gomez '03, the program's first fellow and former Director, will discuss the multitude of benefits through fellowship opportunities abroad. Campus Exhibits

Cotsen Children's Library Exhibits The Cotsen Children's Library is located to the right as you enter Firestone Library. Families are invited to stop by to relax and read in our public gallery for children. Additionally, we invite you to view our current exhibit, "The Art of Having Fun: Père Castor's Activity Books," which features colorful and engaging items from Cotsen's collections. Cotsen Children's Library is open from 9:00 AM–5:00 PM during Reunions.

Firestone Library Galleries Enjoy gallery exhibitions sponsored by the Friends of the Princeton University Library: "Numismatics in the Renaissance" and "The Journals of Theodore Spencer '23" in the Main Exhibition Gallery and "Notre livre: À toute épreuve. A Collaboration between Joan Miró and Paul Éluard" in the Leonard L. Milberg Gallery for the Graphic Arts. Firestone Library is open from 9:00 AM–5:00 PM during Reunions.

Frist Campus Center Display Flanking the main staircase on 100 level, "Always the P-rade—from Origin to Tradition" a display courtesy of the Alumni Council Committee on Princetoniana. For more than a century, the long Orange-and-Black line has made its exuberant way through campus at Reunions. See the changing routes, costumes, floats, animals—and alums of every stripe—celebrating their multigenerational bonds in this unique Princeton tradition.

Lewis Center for the Arts An exhibition of all Visual Arts Classes in Ceramics, Sculpture, Drawing, Painting, Photography and Installation. The Lewis Center for the Arts, 185 Nassau Street, is open Thursday and Friday 10:00 AM–4:30 PM.

Princeton University Art Museum Founded in 1882, the Princeton University Art Museum is one of the finest art museums in the country. Its collection features more than 68,000 works ranging from ancient to contemporary art, and concentrating geographically on the Mediterranean regions, Western Europe, China, the United States, and Latin America, with particular strengths in Chinese painting and calligraphy, art of the Ancient Americas, and pictorial photography. The following special exhibitions will be on view during Reunions: "Invoking the Comic Muse: Toulouse-Lautrec's Parody of The Sacred Grove;" "An Educated Eye: Princeton University Art Museum Collections;" and "Early Warhol in Context." Admission is free. Hours are Tuesday–Saturday, 10:00 AM–5:00 PM; Sunday, 1:00 PM–5:00 PM. Please remember to visit the museum shop for a wonderful selection of gifts. Visitor information: (609) 258-3788 or www.princetonartmuseum.org.

University Archives All are welcome to view the exhibit, “Times They Are A-Changin’,” which draws upon the University Archives’ holdings to look back on a transformative era in the University’s history—the years between 1958 and 1983. Using a montage of photographs, the exhibition describes in visual terms the changing order of life on campus: coeducation, the rise of computing technology, the formation of new academic departments, the restructuring of residential life, political activism by Princeton students during the 1960s and 1970s, and the vast changes that occurred to the campus. The Classes of 1958 and 1983 years on campus are also honored. Thursday and Friday, 9:00 AM–5:00 PM; Saturday, 9:00 AM–1:00 PM. Seeley G. Mudd Manuscript Library (behind Elm Club).

Alcohol Policy at Princeton University The University alcoholic beverage policy is designed to be consistent with the laws of the State of New Jersey and also reflects the need for mutual respect and personal responsibility within a diverse community.

The University and Borough prohibit:

- Transporting of an open container of alcohol across common spaces of the University. (Common spaces are areas such as lounges, open campus, meeting halls, etc., outside of Reunions Headquarters).
- Possession of a container of alcohol by persons under the age of 21.
- Serving of alcohol to persons under the age of 21.

The State of New Jersey has very strict laws concerning driving under the influence of alcohol and drugs. Persons found guilty of DWI charges are subject to substantial penalties, including fines and imprisonment. In addition, the Borough of Princeton prohibits the transporting of open containers of alcohol in public places, such as streets and sidewalks (including Prospect Avenue). Finally, please note that golf carts are considered vehicles for purposes of DWI and Open Container laws.

Animals Animals are not permitted in academic and dormitory buildings or major reunion headquarters sites, with the exception of service animals or those training for guests with disabilities. All other animals are prohibited.

The tennis courts will be open Thursday-Sunday for recreational play during daylight hours. Time on the courts works on a first come, first served basis.

Campus Shuttle

The Alumni Association provides a shuttle service to help you move around the campus and from the parking lots, Princeton Stadium, Forbes College, and the Graduate College to the main campus. There are three main routes:

- Lot 21/Princeton Stadium/Campus
- Lots 6 and 23A/Forbes/Graduate College/Campus
- Elm Drive/Lot 6 Parking Garage

Note that because of special events and campus construction, shuttles may need to be rerouted. The shuttle service hours are:

Thursday: 12:00 Noon–12:00 Midnight
 Friday: 8:00 AM–1:00 AM
 Saturday: 8:00 AM–12:00 Noon
 4:00 PM–1:00 AM
 Sunday: 8:00 AM–12:00 Noon

Computing Resources During Reunions weekend, OIT provides Internet connectivity to all visitors on campus using the OIT Visitor Wireless Service, which requires no registration and is free of charge. For those who come without their personal laptops, centrally located computing facilities are available to you. Getting Help While On Campus—Ask the Help Desk! The OIT Help Desk (kb.princeton.edu/3338) is open around the clock for telephone support, e-mail support, and online chat, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. To speak with a Help Desk consultant, call 609-258-HELP (4357) and press option 1. For online chat, go to the OIT home page (www.princeton.edu/oit).

Wireless Networking: Wireless networking is available throughout campus. A printable map that shows wireless coverage on campus can be found at: www.princeton.edu/wirelessmap.

Connecting to the Network and Configuring Your Computer

Please note that if your company uses a private Intranet network, you may not have access to it. Check with your local technical support prior to coming to Reunions for information about gaining access to your company's computing resources from the Princeton network.

Windows Vista computers

- Click on the Start button, and then click Connect To.
- Click on the puvistor Wireless Network Connection.

Windows XP and 2000 computers

- Click on the Start button
- Pull up to Connect To and select Show All Connections (in Windows 2000 or XP using the classic interface, pull up to Settings and select Network Connections)
- Right-click on the Wireless Network Connection and select View Available Wireless Networks
- Select puvistor from the list of available wireless networks
- Click the OK button

Mac OS X computers

- Open the Applications folder
- Open the Internet Connect utility
- Click the Airport icon
- Select puvistor from the network pulldown menu

Troubleshooting—Are You in a Wireless Service Area? Be sure you are in an area of the campus served by Visitor Wireless. Do you see a wireless network named puvistor? If you can, then Visitor Wireless is available in your location. If you cannot, make sure that wireless connectivity on your computer is enabled, or move to a location where you are certain wireless is available.

Computing Facilities Available during Reunions: There are several computing facilities (“clusters”) available for your use during the Reunions weekend. These machines will have a special Reunions configuration and will not require you to log in. You can simply visit one of the facilities listed below and gain access to the Internet. You can use these computers to check your e-mail (provided you have a Web-accessible e-mail interface), browse the Internet and use Microsoft Office.

Reunions computer clusters will be located as follows:

- McCosh B59
- Friend 005, 007 and 009
- 1901 Cluster
- All OIT workstations in Frist

For more information on software and platforms available in these clusters, please see: www.princeton.edu/cluster.

Your Responsibilities: It is especially important that the computer you attach to the campus network operates in such a way as to not interfere with the effective performance of the network. Because these devices will not be registered in the Princeton University Host Database, OIT will be unable to identify and notify their owners in the event they operate in ways that interfere with the campus network. This could make it difficult to address problems and restore network service to the rest of the campus in a timely fashion.

You can help minimize such problems by ensuring that the computer you bring to campus has all current security and definitions updates installed, is properly secured against intrusion, and has current antiviral software. In particular, you should not attach DHCP servers to the campus network.

While you are a customer of Princeton University's network, you are expected to abide by the University's information technology policies, available online at: www.princeton.edu/guidelines.

Hotel-to-Campus Bus Program Hotels serviced by this program are:

Route 1 North of Princeton: Best Western Princeton Manor Inn & Suites, Princeton Marriott Hotel & Conference Center at Forrestal, Hampton Inn, Holiday Inn, Wyndham Princeton Forrestal Hotel & Conference Center (formerly Lakeside and Harrison), Courtyard by Marriott, Residence Inn Princeton by Marriott, Doubletree Hotel (formerly Premier Hotel), Staybridge Suites, and the Westin at Forrestal.

Route 1 South of Princeton: Clarion Hotel (formerly Palmer Inn), Comfort Inn of Lawrenceville (formerly McIntosh Inn), Extended Stay America, Howard Johnson Lodge, Hyatt Place (formerly AmeriSuites at Marketfair), Hyatt Regency, Red Roof Inn at Princeton, and the Residence Inn Princeton at Carnegie (Marketfair).

Bus schedules are located in the hotel lobbies on the routes above, at the Frist Campus Center Welcome Desk, and at all major reunion headquarters sites. The hotel campus bus stop is located off of Elm Drive at Lot #6 (parking garage).

Lightning Storms: Emergency Preparedness Lightning is the second leading cause of direct weather deaths in the U.S. (after floods) and results in more fatalities each year than tornadoes and hurricanes combined. Given the random nature of lightning strikes, absolute protection cannot be guaranteed to any individual or group. Individuals are ultimately responsible for their personal safety and should take appropriate action when threatened by lightning. Adults must take responsibility for the safety of children in their care during thunderstorm activities. However, awareness of certain lightning safety guidelines can greatly reduce the risk of injury or death.

1. Identify in advance a location (e.g., building, bus, personal automobile) that would be safe during a thunderstorm. Locations that offer little or no protection from lightning include tents, golf carts, or open shelters, such as parking garages. Recommended locations for Reunions participants include dormitories of headquarters sites, Alexander Hall, the Chapel and the Frist Campus Center.
2. Public Safety will notify your Reunion if a bad storm is expected and if evacuation of the headquarters site is recommended. When you first see lightning or hear thunder, go to the safe location immediately. Lightning often precedes rain; so don't wait for the rain to begin before suspending activities
3. If you are caught outdoors, avoid high ground, open spaces, and water. Avoid all metal objects including electrical wires, fences, machinery, motors, and power tools. Avoid standing under reunion tents; while they provide protection from the rain, they do not provide protection from lightning. If lightning is striking nearby when you are outside, you should:
 - a. Crouch down and put your feet together. Place your hands over your ears to minimize hearing damage from thunder.
 - b. If part of a group, spread out. You should avoid being in close proximity (minimum of 15 ft.) to other people.
4. Suspend outdoor activities for at least 30 minutes after the last observed lightning flash or thunder clap or until your reunion receives the "All Clear" message from Public Safety.
5. Persons injured by a lightning strike do not carry an electrical charge and can be handled safely. Apply First Aid procedures to a lightning victim if you are qualified to do so. Call 911 or send for help immediately.

Lost and Found If you discover you have lost an item over the weekend, please check first with the student crew at your major reunion headquarters. Shortly after Reunions, lost and found items will be moved to Public Safety and registered. You can check with the Public Safety Office regarding your item at 609-258-1000.

Medical Services We are fortunate to have large numbers of people in attendance at Reunions and medical emergencies both large and small can be expected. If you or a companion need assistance, medical help is available for bee stings, cardiac symptoms, or anything in between. Please check at your major reunion headquarters site, program your cell phone to 609-258-3333, or dial 911 from any blue light or campus phone. Dialing 911 on a cell phone goes to Mercer County for routing and significantly slows emergency response time.

Orange Key Campus Tours Tours are will be offered Thursday and Friday, May 29 and 30, at 11:15 AM, 1:30 PM, and 3:30 PM, leaving from the Admission Reception Area in Clio Hall (top floor).

Parking All entrances to the University will be closed to vehicles during Reunions. To access the campus shuttle, park cars in Lot #16, #23 and #23A (for 60th, 65th, and Old Guard alumni only) on the lower end of campus. Overflow will be in Lot #21, next to Jadwin Gym.

P-rade! The one and only P-rade begins at 2:00 PM on Saturday. Alumni, spouses, and their children are welcome to march.

Be sure to check the P-rade map in your Princeton Alumni Weekly issue, or on posters at your major reunion headquarters site and around campus for the route and staging area for your class. Special orange signs will also be posted along the route—or you can look for your classmates in their reunion costumes. Tiger Refreshments will have three concession locations along the P-rade route: the southeast corner of Alexander Beach, along Elm Drive, immediately southeast of Dillon Court East, along Elm Drive, and between Scully Hall and Icahn Laboratory.

This year's finale will be on Poe-Pardee fields. Parents of members of the Class of 2008 are encouraged to sit on the bleachers reserved for them at the Poe-Pardee finale for the best views and photos. At the end of the route, please help keep the P-rade moving!

Here are some additional suggestions that could help your major reunion win this year's Class of 1945 P-rade Trophy:

- Get to your staging area by 1:45 PM.
- Wear your reunion costume.
- Keep up with your class! Follow the banner and keep up with the people in front of you.
- Carry very young children or use a stroller.
- Keep moving while you are cheering the reunions along the way and at the Reviewing Stand.

Public Safety The Public Safety Office is located at 200 Elm Drive and can be reached at 609-258-1000. Emergency calls can be made from any blue light campus or wall-mounted emergency phone, by pressing the red emergency button, or by pressing 9-1-1. If making an emergency call for a campus emergency from a cell phone, dial 609-258-3333. Dialing 911 on a cell phone goes to Mercer County for routing and significantly slows emergency response time.

* Please Note: While every effort will be made to carry out the program as planned, the agenda is subject to change.*

Photographs and recordings taken by anyone authorized by Princeton University during Reunions may be used in publications, both electronic and print, at the discretion of the University.
