Reunions May 25-28, 2000

May 2000

Dear Princetonian:

Welcome back! I can't think of any better way to celebrate being a Princetonian than returning for Reunions. As you can see from the program contained in this booklet, your Reunion Chairs have once again created a memorable weekend. I hope your visit with friends and classmates this year will be truly special.

It is a particular honor for me to serve as your ceremonial host at a time when the University is flourishing. It has been another remarkable year for Princeton on all fronts — thanks to your continued support. Hopefully, over the course of this weekend you will get a chance to see just how Princeton continues to get better at what it does.

I encourage you to sample the intellectual fare of the many fine forums sponsored by the Alumni Council and major reunion classes and to enjoy Princeton's visual and performing artists. We also officially begin a yearlong celebration of the Centennial of the Graduate School this weekend. Saturday morning's Centennial Symposium, sponsored by the Association of Princeton Graduate Alumni, is open to all.

Of course, later on Saturday afternoon, there's the one and only P-rade, and in the evening a concert and fireworks at Poe-Pardee Fields.

Have a wonderful weekend!

*Joseph L. Serafini '64
Chair of the Alumni Council*

The Art Museum. Exhibition of the Art of Yayoi Kusama. Seventy works of Japanese artist Yayoi Kusama are on loan from Richard Castellane '55. Kusama's work since the 1950's has been described as evoking "mechanization, repetition, obsession, compulsion, dizziness." Her diverse work bears affinities to Abstract Expressionism, Minimalism and Pop Art. It prefigured and then catalyzed the psychedelic, body-oriented wave that swept through the culture of the 1960s. A lecture on Kusama and her influential art of the last half of the 20th century by Dr. David Moos is scheduled for Friday at 4:00 p.m. in McCosh 10.

Additional Exhibits: Curator's Choice: Recent Acquisitions; Photographs by Barbara Bosworth; The Dawn of Maya Kings: An Early Maya Stela; Flora and Fauna in Chinese Painting; A Window into Collecting American Folk Art: The Edward Duff Balken Collection at Princeton.

Thursday-Saturday, 10:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m.; Sunday, 1:00 p.m.-5:00 p.m. The Art Museum.

University Archives. Current exhibition: Just for Princeton: Celebrating the Classes of 1940, 1950, 1960, 1975 and 1980. The archives houses memorabilia, senior theses and records of Princeton's history and lore. Thursday and Friday, 9:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m.; Saturday, 9:00 a.m.-1:00 p.m. Seeley G. Mudd Manuscript Library (behind Elm Club).

THURSDAY - MAY 25TH

CAMPUS INFORMATION

ACCESS FOR PEOPLE WITH DISABILITIES:

If you or another member of your family who is participating in this year's Reunions activities require accommodation for a disability, please contact the Associate Provost's Office at 258-6110. We would appreciate it if you could indicate the events you expect to attend and provide information about your needs as early as possible.

MEDICAL SERVICES:

We are fortunate to enjoy a large attendance at Reunions, and medical emergencies both large and small can be expected. If you or a companion need assistance for a bee sting, cardiac symptoms or anything in between, medical help is available. Please check at your major reunion headquarters site. For the Lawn Concert and Fireworks at Poe-Pardee Field, emergency aid workers are stationed at the following locations: Elm Drive entrance to Poe-Pardee Field; Scully Dorm (mini-lot on the west side); P-rade reviewing stand (north bleachers); Lot 5 (Molecular Biology); Lot 20 (south of Poe-Pardee); and at the Concert Stage. In addition, mobile teams will be circulating. If you experience any discomfort during or after the presentations, workers are ready to assist you.
