Dear Princetonian,

Welcome back to Old Nassau!

This year marks the 150th anniversary of two cornerstones of Princeton alumni life. In 1859, Harlan Page Peck, Class of 1862, collaborated with German teacher and choral director Karl Langlotz to write the song “Old Nassau.” That same year also saw the Class of 1856 hold the first class-based reunion in Princeton’s history in its triennial year.

One hundred and fifty years later, there’s still no better way to celebrate being a Princetonian than returning to campus for Reunions. Your Class and APGA Reunion Chairs, along with volunteers from dozens of alumni organizations and departments, have once again created an extraordinary weekend, as you will see from the program contained in this booklet. We hope that your visit with friends and classmates here on campus will be meaningful and memorable.

I encourage you to sample the intellectual fare of the many fine Alumni-Faculty Forums and panels sponsored by the Alumni Association, departments, and the major reunion classes. Of special note, on Friday afternoon, Dean of Admission Janet Rapelye will host an information session on navigating the college admission process for high school students and their parents. Also on Friday afternoon, those alumni interested in leveraging the Princeton careers network are invited to a careers program on “How to Tune Up Your Career in a Down Market.” As an alternative, take advantage of the vast range of entertainment and social opportunities offered during the weekend—you may want to spend the afternoon on Friday listening to alumni bands from the past battle it out in the second “Alumni Battle of the Bands” in the Dillon Gym Courtyard, or join other alumni for an inaugural Singles Mingle in the Upper Hyphen of Chancellor Green on Friday evening.

On Saturday morning, we hope that you will attend President Tilghman’s annual “Conversation with Alumni” in Richardson Auditorium. And, of course, on Saturday afternoon there’s the one and only P-rade, followed in the evening by a concert and fireworks on Finney and Campbell Fields near the Princeton Stadium.

For the past two years, as president of the Alumni Association, I have had the opportunity to meet so many of you either back on campus or in the regions in which you live. I have traveled with our 19th president, Shirley M. Tilghman, to town meetings and regional conferences in the U.S. and abroad, hearing her speak openly and earnestly about her goals and vision for Princeton. I hope that over the course of this weekend you will get a chance to see just how well Princeton continues to flourish under her leadership.

I welcome you back to Princeton and salute the many alumni leaders and volunteers who have worked so diligently to make this reunion possible for all of us.

Have a wonderful weekend.

David C. Siegfried '64

Flatland: A Romance of Many Dimensions Edwin Abbott's classic story comes to life in this new musical adaptation! When a spherical visitor enters the two-dimensional world of Flatland, she challenges not only their ideas about geometry but their whole way of life. It is up to the humble Square to spread the truth about the third dimension—but can he convince the people of Flatland and their stubborn leaders? Don't miss this exciting mix of music, math, and merriment! To 9:30 PM. Sponsored by the Princeton University Players. Frist Campus Center, Film and Performance Theater (Room 301).

Our Town Thornton Wilder's Pulitzer Prize-winning classic tells a story of small-town life and love, celebrating the values of community, family, and the appreciation of everyday blessings. It is a play about the beautiful, ever-continuing cycle of life: as the narrator sums up, "This is the way we were: in our growing up and in our marrying and in our living and in our dying." To 10:30 PM. Sponsored by Theatre Intime. Hamilton Murray Theater.

Browne discovers that her New England ancestors were the largest slave-trading family in U.S. history. She and nine relatives retrace the Triangle Trade, uncovering the vast extent of Northern complicity in slavery and gaining fresh perspectives on the black/white divide. Most white Americans have foresworn overt racism, but what remains? What are the structural inequities, and what kinds of racial baggage do many of us carry, such as the "racial stalemate" of black anger and white resentment named by President Obama? What transforming role can faith groups play? To 4:00 PM. Sponsored by Princeton Project 55. Frist Campus Center, Film and Performance Theater (Room 301).

Program in Teacher Preparation 40th Anniversary Panel Presentation: Our Public Schools Seen through the Eyes of the New Generation of Teachers Teaching has become an increasingly attractive career choice for growing numbers of young people, and their entry into the profession is changing the demographics of our nation’s corps of teachers in K–12 schools. This new generation of educators is entering the profession at a time of mounting concern over the preparation of students for lives in the mid-21st century. The panelists, all recent graduates of the Program in Teacher Preparation, will share their perspectives of the needs they perceive among both our schools and the students, the challenges they face as teachers, and the roles they envision for themselves in education. To 5:00 PM. Sponsored by the Program in Teacher Preparation. Computer Science, Room 104.

Sound, Music, and ... Physics By Pierre A. Piroué, Henry De-Wolf Smyth Professor of Physics, Emeritus. This is a lecture for everyone who loves music and wants to learn a little about how it is made. The traditional way to teach the physics of music is to start with simple physics—vibration, waves, etc.—followed by applications to musical instruments, scales, acoustics, etc. In other words, theory first and applications later. The trouble with this approach is that it really only suits scientifically minded students. Another approach is to develop the physical concepts and the musical applications together, and this is the approach taken in this lecture, with emphasis on demonstrations for all ages. To 4:00 PM. Sponsored by the Department of Physics. McDonnell Hall, Room A02.

Kites: Fireworks, Physics, and Fancy Learn how kites were constructed, decorated, and launched into the air from this selection of illustrated books from the 17th through 19th centuries. Highlights include a very early illustration of a boy sending a message up his kite's string and a copy of the book from which the young Isaac Newton learned how to make a kite that could be set on fire for night flying. Alumni families are also invited to relax and read in "Bookscape," our public gallery for children. 9:00 AM to 5:00 PM, Thursday–Sunday. Sponsored by the Cotsen Children's Library. Cotsen Children's Library, Firestone Library.

Liberty and the American Revolution: Selections from the Collection of Sid Lapidus '59 This exhibition celebrates 50 years of collecting by Sid Lapidus, Class of 1959, as well as the 50th reunion of his class. It features 157 important books, pamphlets, and prints exemplary of the collection's major themes: the origins of the American Revolution, the Revolution itself, the early years of the Republic, the resulting spread of democratic ideas in the Atlantic world, as well as the concomitant effort to abolish the slave trade in both Great Britain and the United States. Presented as gifts at Reunions, those selected are from his more than 2,500 books. 9:00 AM to 5:00 PM, Thursday–Saturday. Sponsored by Rare Books and Special Collections, Firestone Library. Main Exhibition Gallery, Firestone Library.

Princeton University Art Museum Founded in 1882, the Princeton University Art Museum is one of the finest art museums in the country. Its collection features approximately 70,000 works ranging from ancient to contemporary art, and concentrating geographically on the Mediterranean regions, Western Europe, China, the United States, and Latin America, with particular strengths in Chinese painting and calligraphy, art of the Ancient Americas, and pictorial photography. The following special exhibitions will be on view during Reunions: “Myth and Modernity: Ernst Barlach’s Images of The Nibelungen and Faust”; “Outside In: Chinese x American x Contemporary Art”; “Memorable Encounters from Honen to de Kooning: In Honor of Yōshiaki Shimizu”; and “What Is a Thing.” Admission is free. Hours are Tuesday–Saturday, 10:00 AM–5:00 PM; Sunday, 1:00 PM–5:00 PM. Don’t miss the museum shop, where you’ll find a wonderful selection of unique items and gifts. For information, please call (609) 258-3788 or visit the museum online at <http://artmuseum.princeton.edu>.

“The Best Old Place of All”: Treasures from the Princeton University Archives This exhibition coincides with the yearlong celebration of the 50th anniversary of the University Archives and features some of the most historically significant documents and objects from the collection alongside seldom-seen treasures. On May 29 and 30, the 1748 Charter of the College of New Jersey will be on view to the public. The two-foot-wide parchment bearing the seal of the Province of New Jersey is the founding document under which the University operates even today. Rarely taken out of climate-controlled storage, the Charter is a magnificent piece of Princeton history, and one that few have had the opportunity to behold. 9:00 AM–5:00 PM, Thursday and Friday; 9:00 AM–12:00 Noon, Saturday. Continental breakfast Saturday, 9:00 AM–11:00 AM. Sponsored by the Seeley G. Mudd Manuscript Library. Seeley G. Mudd Manuscript Library, 65 Olden Street.

Alcohol Policy at Princeton University The University alcoholic beverage policy is designed to be consistent with the laws of the State of New Jersey and also reflects the need for mutual respect and personal responsibility within a diverse community.

The University and Borough prohibit:

- Transporting of an open container of alcohol across common spaces of the University. (Common spaces are areas such as lounges, open campus, meeting halls, etc., outside of Reunions Headquarters).
- Possession of a container of alcohol by persons under the age of 21.
- Serving of alcohol to persons under the age of 21.

The State of New Jersey has very strict laws concerning driving under the influence of alcohol and drugs. Persons found guilty of DWI charges are subject to substantial penalties, including fines and imprisonment. In addition, the Borough of Princeton prohibits the transporting of open containers of alcohol in public places, such as streets and sidewalks (including Prospect Avenue). Finally, please note that golf carts are considered vehicles for purposes of DWI and Open Container laws.

Animals Animals are not permitted in academic and dormitory buildings or major reunion headquarters sites, with the exception of service animals or those training for guests with disabilities. All other animals are prohibited.

Computing Resources During Reunions weekend, OIT provides Internet connectivity to all visitors on campus using the OIT Visitor Wireless Service, which requires no registration and is free of charge. For those who come without their personal laptops, centrally located computing facilities are available to you.

Getting Help While on Campus—Ask the Help Desk!

The OIT Help Desk (kb.princeton.edu/3338) is open around the clock for telephone support, e-mail support, and online chat, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. To speak with a Help Desk consultant, call 609-258-HELP (4357) and press option 1. For online chat, go to the OIT home page (www.princeton.edu/oit).

Wireless Networking Wireless networking is available throughout campus. A printable map that shows wireless coverage on campus can be found at: www.princeton.edu/wirelessmap.

Connecting to the Network and Configuring Your Computer

Please note that if your company uses a private Intranet network, you may not have access to it. Check with your local technical support prior to coming to Reunions for information about gaining access to your company's computing resources from the Princeton network.

- Right-click on the Wireless Network Connection and select View Available Wireless Networks
- Select puvistor from the list of available wireless networks
- Click the OK button

Mac OS X computers

- Open the Applications folder
- Open the Internet Connect utility
- Click the Airport icon
- Select puvistor from the network pulldown menu

Troubleshooting—Are You in a Wireless Service Area?

Be sure you are in an area of the campus served by Visitor Wireless. Do you see a wireless network named puvistor? If you can, then Visitor Wireless is available in your location. If you cannot, make sure that wireless connectivity on your computer is enabled, or move to a location where you are certain wireless is available.

Computing Facilities Available during Reunions There are several computing facilities (“clusters”) available for your use during the Reunions weekend. These machines will have a special Reunions configuration and will not require you to log in. You can simply visit one of the facilities listed below and gain access to the Internet. You can use these computers to check your e-mail (provided you have a web-accessible e-mail interface), browse the Internet and use Microsoft Office.

Reunions computer clusters will be located as follows:

- McCosh B59
- Friend 005, 007, and 009
- 1901 Cluster
- All OIT workstations in Frist

For more information on software and platforms available in these clusters, please see: www.princeton.edu/clusters.

Your Responsibilities: It is especially important that the computer you attach to the campus network operates in such a way as to not interfere with the effective performance of the network. Because these devices will not be registered in the Princeton University Host Database, OIT will be unable to identify and notify their owners in the event they operate in ways that interfere with the campus network. This could make it difficult to address problems and restore network service to the rest of the campus in a timely fashion.

You can help minimize such problems by ensuring that the computer you bring to campus has all current security and definitions updates installed, is properly secured against intrusion, and has current antiviral software. In particular, you should not attach DHCP servers to the campus network.

While you are a customer of Princeton University’s network, you are expected to abide by the University’s information technology policies, available online at: www.princeton.edu/guidelines.

Hotel-to-Campus Bus Program Hotels serviced by this program are:

Route 1 North of Princeton: Best Western Princeton Manor Inn & Suites, Courtyard by Marriott, Doubletree Hotel (formerly Premier Hotel), Homewood Suites by Hilton, Hampton Inn, Holiday Inn, Princeton Marriott Hotel & Conference Center at Forrestal, Residence Inn Princeton by Marriott, Staybridge Suites, the Westin at Forrestal, and Wyndham Princeton Forrestal Hotel & Conference Center (formerly Lakeside and Harrison).

Route 1 South of Princeton: Clarion Hotel (formerly Palmer Inn), Comfort Inn of Lawrenceville (formerly McIntosh Inn), Howard Johnson Lodge, Hyatt Place (formerly AmeriSuites at MarketFair), Hyatt Regency, Red Roof Inn at Princeton, and the Residence Inn Princeton at Carnegie (MarketFair).

Bus schedules are located in the hotel lobbies on the routes above, at the Frist Campus Center Welcome Desk, and at all major reunion headquarters sites. You may also view the schedule on Reunions Mobile at m.princeton.edu/reunions. The hotel campus bus stop is located off of Elm Drive at Lot #6 (parking garage).

Lightning Storms: Emergency Preparedness

Lightning is the second leading cause of direct weather deaths in the U.S. (after floods) and results in more fatalities each year than tornadoes and hurricanes combined. Given the random nature of lightning strikes, absolute protection cannot be guaranteed to any individual or group. Individuals are ultimately responsible for their personal safety and should take appropriate action when threatened by lightning. Adults must take responsibility for the safety of children in their care during thunderstorm activities. However, awareness of certain lightning safety guidelines can greatly reduce the risk of injury or death.

1. Identify in advance a location (e.g., building, bus, personal automobile) that would be safe during a thunderstorm. Locations that offer little or no protection from lightning include tents, golf carts, or open shelters, such as parking garages. Recommended locations for Reunions participants include dormitories of headquarters sites, Alexander Hall, the Chapel, and the Frist Campus Center.
2. Public Safety will notify your reunion if a bad storm is expected and if evacuation of the headquarters site is recommended. When you first see lightning or hear thunder, go to the safe location immediately. Lightning often precedes rain; so don't wait for the rain to begin before suspending activities.
3. If you are caught outdoors, avoid high ground, open spaces, and water. Avoid all metal objects including electrical wires, fences, machinery, motors, and power tools. Avoid standing under reunion tents; while they provide protection from the rain, they do not provide protection from lightning. If lightning is striking nearby when you are outside, you should:
 - a. Crouch down and put your feet together. Place your hands over your ears to minimize hearing damage from thunder.
 - b. If part of a group, spread out. You should avoid being in close proximity (minimum of 15 ft.) to other people.
4. Suspend outdoor activities for at least 30 minutes after the last observed lightning flash or thunder clap or until your reunion receives the "All Clear" message from Public Safety.
5. Persons injured by a lightning strike do not carry an electrical charge and can be handled safely. Apply First Aid procedures to a lightning victim if you are qualified to do so. Call 911 or send for help immediately.

Lost and Found If you discover you have lost an item over the weekend, please check first with the student crew at your major reunion headquarters. Shortly after Reunions, lost and found items will be moved to Public Safety and registered. You can check with the Department of Public Safety regarding your item at 609-258-1000.

Medical Services We are fortunate to have large numbers of people in attendance at Reunions and medical emergencies both large and small can be expected. If you or a companion need assistance, medical help is available for bee stings, cardiac symptoms, or anything in between. Please check at your major reunion headquarters site, program your cell phone to 609-258-3333, or dial 911 from any blue light or campus phone. Dialing 911 on a cell phone goes to Mercer County for routing and significantly slows emergency response time.

Orange Key Campus Tours Tours will be offered Thursday and Friday, May 28 and 29, at 11:15 AM, 1:00 PM, and 3:30 PM, leaving from the Admission Reception Area in Clio Hall (top floor).

Parking All entrances to the University will be closed to vehicles during Reunions. To access the campus shuttle, park cars in Lot #16 and #23. Old Guard, 60th reunion, and 65th reunion alumni only may park in Lot #23A on the lower end of campus. Overflow will be in Lot #21, next to Jadwin Gym.

P-rade! The P-rade begins at 2:00 PM on Saturday. Alumni, spouses, and their children are welcome to march.

Be sure to check the P-rade map in this booklet, in your Reunions issue of the Princeton Alumni Weekly, or on posters at your major reunion headquarters site and around campus for the route and staging area for your class. Special orange signs will also be posted along the route—or you can look for your classmates in their reunion costumes. Tiger Refreshments will have three concession locations along the P-rade route: the southeast corner of Alexander Beach, along Elm Drive, immediately southeast of Dillon Court East, along Elm Drive, and between Scully Hall and Icahn Laboratory.

This year's finale will be on Poe-Pardee fields. Parents of members of the Class of 2009 are encouraged to sit on the bleachers reserved for them at the Poe-Pardee finale for the best views and photos. At the end of the route, please help keep the P-rade moving!

Here are some additional suggestions that could help your major reunion win this year's Class of 1945 P-rade Trophy:

- Get to your staging area by 1:45 PM
- Wear your reunion costume.
- Keep up with your class! Follow the banner and keep up with the people in front of you.
- Carry very young children or use a stroller.

- Keep moving while you are cheering the reunions along the way and at the Reviewing Stand.

Public Safety The Department of Public Safety is located at 200 Elm Drive and can be reached at 609-258-1000. Emergency calls can be made from any blue light campus or wall mounted emergency phone, by pressing the red emergency button, or by pressing 9-1-1. If making an emergency call for a campus emergency from a cell phone, dial 609-258-3333. Dialing 911 on a cell phone goes to Mercer County for routing and significantly slows emergency response time.

* Please Note: While every effort will be made to carry out the program as planned, the agenda is subject to change.*

Photographs and recordings taken by anyone authorized by Princeton University during Reunions may be used in publications, both electronic and print, at the discretion of the University.

Help keep Reunions safe. Make Public Safety your first call for emergencies on campus.

- Dial 609-258-3333 from a cell phone.
- Dial 911 from a campus phone or call box.

The Department of Public Safety is located at 200 Elm Drive.

Officers are on duty 24 hours a day, and can expedite emergency services during large events by coordinating with local responders.
